Nathan was born in California, USA and raised in Hong Kong with a mixed influence of Western and Chinese culture. His cinematography style of colourful tones and strong sense of movement is an infusion of his mixed cultural upbringing, along with experience working in HK cinema and with foreign productions. He has shot a diverse amount of films including art house features, romance, comedy films, and action movies. Having worked under directors such as Doug Liman (Edge of tomorrow), Felix Chong (Infernal Affairs, Project Gutenberg), cinematographers such as Janusz Kaminski (Saving Private Ryan, Schindlers list) and Karl Walter Lindenlaub (Independence day) to name a few.

Besides working as a DP, Nathan is also a proven steadicam and camera operator and works around the Asia region working on various Netflix/ Amazon shows, international commercials and feature films.
